

Joseph Wagner

www.linkedin.com/in/josephwwagner

jwag5665@gmail.com

61 Ridgewood Road
Willimantic, CT 06226

(860)-305-4523

Education:

University of Rhode Island- Kingston

B.A. in Marine Affairs, minor in Animal Science and Technology- December 2002.

Coursework Highlights:

Marine and Coastal Law, Environmental Law, International Ocean Policy, Wildlife and Human Disease, Soil Science, Shipping and Ports, Environmental Analysis and Policy.

FAA Airframe and Powerplant Certificate (2015)

Business and Technical Communications-online course, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (2015).

OSHA 40 hour Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response

(HAZWOPER) (2005).

Connecticut Land Use Law- for Municipal Agencies, Boards, and Commissions (2013).

Municipal Inland Wetlands Agency Comprehensive Training Program (2014).

Activities:

Windham Inland Wetlands Commission- Voting commissioner since 2008.

Save the Bay (Narragansett Bay)- Member.

Association of State Wetland Managers- Member.

Advanced SCUBA diver- NAUI certified.

Hobbies- hiking, fishing, camping, sailing, aquarium keeping and keeping my two dogs happy.

Employment:

UH-60 Helicopter Mechanic- M2 Services, Groton, CT. 2006 to present. Supervisor: Jason Williams (Tel.860-441-2939).

Perform heavy maintenance, overhaul, and troubleshooting of Army helicopters.

Resource Assistant- Connecticut Dept. of Environmental Protection (DEP). 6 month seasonal positions from 2003-2005. Supervisors: Kurt Gottshall (Tel.860-434-8638), Eileen O'Donnell (Tel.860-295-9523).

Collected and processed research data as field crew of the Long Island Sound marine fisheries and water quality surveys, lakes and rivers surveys, and angler surveys. Prepared and stocked fish raised by DEP hatcheries. Determined age and growth rate of sampled fish. Maintained and repaired boats and survey equipment.

Field Technician- Osmose, Inc.- East Haven, CT.

On-site GIS mapping and database updating of utility poles.

Field Technician- Diversified Environmental Services- Southington, CT.

Monitoring well installation and sampling at contaminated sites. Maintained water purification systems for contaminated properties.

Maintenance Assistant- Tyco Printed Circuits- Manchester, CT.

Assisted with the manufacturing plants' upgrade to higher efficiency waste treatment system.

Computer Skills:

Microsoft Word, Excel, Powerpoint, Wordpress.org, Corel Paintshop, Scribus.